The workshop covers the use of Key Word Sign and natural gesture to assist individuals who have difficulties with receptive and/or expressive communication.

This workshop is relevant for anyone living or working with a person with communication difficulties including families, teachers, health professionals, child care workers and volunteers. No previous signing experience is necessary.

Friday 1 April
9.00am – 3.00pm
St Lucy’s School,
21 Cleveland St, Wahroonga

Presented by St Lucy’s accredited KWS trainers:
Speech Pathologist Melissa Miao & Special Education Teacher Nicole Alldis

Morning tea and a light lunch will be served.

Cost:
St Lucy’s families: $100
Others: $120

(Manuals ‘Getting Started with Key Word Sign’ will be available for purchase.)
Financial assistance is available for St Lucy’s families who are experiencing difficult financial circumstances.

For further information please contact:
Natalie Montgomery
Phone: (02) 9487 1277
Email: nataliem@stlucys.nsw.edu.au